Purpose of college

Avadh Bihar College Karmanpur with its high ideal

It gives assurance to meet the common standard of excellence in order to make a mark in the academic world. It is then to make a separate identity in this region through the [teaching system] and experienced teacher. And in order to maintain that trust, he has to work day and night. But one day the result of this effort is found in the form of people's unbelief, people's faith. There is a parallel. The constant interaction with the worthy concomitant thoughts and positive thinking will intensify and raise the flag of the money that people in this area look at this organization with great respect and respect. Upcoming newcomer students want to attract students in upcoming future ç best means of sports , best system of reading , learning lessons , their students and their students' appreciation from other students . Will create a level from the app. We are here to fulfill their faith. I send many many good wishes for prosperity along with these good wishes. Invitation from parent

The college requests its student, the guardian, to send a letter to their student.

In this regard, I have been getting the complete educational information from the college. The college is a social organization, the parents and the students are its active members, so the parents should send their students to the college on time and give new direction to the college development. The college gives first priority to discipline among all the students. There will be no compromise with discipline.
